

FALL WRITING PROMPTS

Describe what you see, smell, and hear on a walk through the fall woods.

If you were a leaf falling from a tree, what would your journey look like?

What is your favorite fall color? Why?

Write about the sounds you hear on a crisp autumn morning.

Imagine animals talking about getting ready for winter. What do they say?

If pumpkins could talk, what story would they tell?

Write a poem about the wind on a fall day.

What does your perfect fall day look like?

Write about a squirrel preparing for winter.

Pretend you are a scarecrow—what do you see in the fields all day?

If fall had a smell, what would it be?

Write a story about a magical autumn forest.

What would happen if it snowed candy corn instead of snowflakes?

Write a story where the wind blows you somewhere unexpected.

If you could invent a new fall holiday, what would it celebrate?

Describe three things that make fall special to you.

What is your favorite thing about the fall season, and why?

Describe how the trees change during fall.

Write a story that takes place in a magical autumn forest.

What would your perfect fall picnic look like?

Write a poem about the changing seasons.

Describe the sound of leaves crunching under your feet.

What kind of clothes do you like wearing in fall? Why?

If fall were a person, what kind of personality would it have?

Describe a cozy fall day spent indoors.

What do you notice on a walk during a chilly fall morning?

How is fall different from summer?

Pretend you are a squirrel getting ready for winter. What's your day like?

What smells remind you of fall?

If you could create a new fall tradition, what would it be?

What would animals say about fall if they could talk?

Describe the sky on an autumn afternoon.

Write about a secret path you find in the woods during fall. What do you see along the path?

What foods taste best in the fall? Why?

Imagine a tree that tells stories. What fall story would it tell you?

How does your neighborhood change during fall?

What makes fall feel special to you?

Write a letter to fall, thanking it for your favorite part of the season.

Imagine you are a leaf drifting through the air. Where do you land?

Imagine your pet could wear a Halloween costume. What would it be?

Write a diary entry from the perspective of a pumpkin.

Describe the perfect fall festival.

If you found a treasure chest in a pile of leaves, what would be inside? What does the wind feel like on a breezy fall day?

What are three colors you see in fall, and how do they make you feel?